

IOSH Leading Safely

Overview:

This Course is designed for people working within a leadership role including Directors, Chief Executives and Senior Managers, this one-day session promotes recognising the value of strategic safety and health and its integration into business management systems and performance management systems.

Who do we recommend attends the course:

Senior Management with a working knowledge of Health and Safety practices.

Course summary:

This course will inform leaders on:

- Developing a strategic understanding of the value of safety and health
- Understanding good practise from leading global organisations
- Understanding where they want to position their organisation's safety performance against other organisations.
- Planning for implementation
- Understanding their operational responsibilities and the opportunities of good performance, as well as the consequences of poor performance.

Course Duration - 1 Day

Certification: IOSH