

NEBOSH General Certificate

Overview:

The NEBOSH General Certificate in Occupational Health & Safety is a globally recognised and highly respected qualification. Regarded as essential by the majority of companies seeking Health & Safety Officers, the NEBOSH General Certificate is the first step for many thousands of people in a fruitful career in Occupational Health and Safety.

The objectives of this course are:

- To meet requirements of NEBOSH National General Certificate in occupational Health and Safety
- To develop and enhance skills, knowledge and ability needed for those who work within occupational health services

Who do we recommend attends the course?

The NEBOSH Certificate is the first step for those looking for a career in Health and Safety and it can be built upon with other NEBOSH qualifications. It is ideal for people who need a comprehensive knowledge of Health and Safety and is suitable for managers, supervisors and staff with some level of health and safety responsibility.

Course summary:

- The qualification is divided into three units, each of which is assessed separately:
- Management of Health and Safety (NGC1)
- Foundations in Health and Safety
- Health and Safety management system's (PLAN, DO, CHECK, ACT)
- Controlling workplace hazards (GC2)
- Work Place hazards and Risk Control
- Transport hazards and Risk Control
- Musculoskeletal & Work Equipment Hazards and Risk Control
- Electrical Safety & Fire Safety
- Chemical and biological Health Hazards and Risk Control
- Physical and Psychological Health Hazards and Risk control
- Health and safety practical application (GC3)
- To carry out, unaided, a safety inspection of a workplace, identifying the more common hazards, deciding whether they are adequately controlled and, where necessary, suggesting appropriate and cost effective control measures

Course duration - 10 Days

Certification - NEBOSH